ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER REGARDING
DEPOSIT OF INTERPLEADER FUNDS IN COURT
REGISTRY AND COLLECTION OF REGISTRY FEE

In accordance with Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 7067 and Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 67, all interpleader funds or funds in the nature of an interpleader proceeding shall be deposited into the court registry. The Clerk shall deposit the funds in an interest-bearing account to be disbursed only upon further order of this Court. Furthermore, the Director of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts has established a Registry Fee to be assessed for administration of funds held in the registry of the Court and placed in interest bearing accounts.

Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED, that the Clerk of Court shall deduct from income earned on registry funds invested in an interest-bearing account, a fee not exceeding that authorized by the Judicial Conference of the United States and set by the Director of the Administrative Office in accordance with the schedule which shall be published periodically by the Director in the Federal Register. Said fee shall be withdrawn at the final distribution of funds by the Clerk of Court upon a valid order and shall be deposited into the United States Treasury.

This Administrative Order is effective immediately and supersedes Administrative Order 97-001 (Northern Division).

Done and entered this the 13th day of April, 2007.
